Reports

1. Senior Community Center Administrative Report

A. Finance Report

Linda Sullivan distributed copies of the finance report. $10,533.84 is the total for this month. She has been unable to pay for buses until bus bill is sent but estimates the cost will be around $1,500.00 for two bus trips. Programs/Special Events will still have bills.

B. Senior Community Center Operations

Linda Sullivan reported the Center has a new copier and it is working well. The copier was from the Senior Services budget but Steve Tilton is looking into maybe splitting the cost with IT. The total cost of the new copier was $1,603.00.

Flowers purchased for Marge Weiner's husband's wake was not taken out of the budget. Donations were given at the Center and the money was used to purchase flowers. Leftover money was given to Marge with a card.

Linda Sullivan reported the luncheon on Wednesday will be accepting donations for Crisis Center of South Suburbia. November will be the Thanksgiving luncheon and there will be no entertainment that month.

Rose Marie Bauer distributed copies of a letter and expenses regarding the Tinley Park Public Library's theatre program. Friends have never charged more than $58.00 for a theatre trip. She stated that the library is not competing with the Senior Services Commission or anyone else with ticket prices. Anyone can attend. Tickets are not just for sale to seniors.
