OLD/ONGOING BUSINESS:

Oktoberfest Recap – October 8th

Roxane Tyssen stated she received great feedback. Everyone enjoyed the event and loved the food. Have not heard from Together We Cope yet as to how many food donations were collected but the truck they sent for food and clothing donations was almost full.

Renee Galvin also heard good feedback from guests and they loved the food.

Halloween Party at the Senior Center on Thursday, October 30th was a bit hit. Had 30 people attend. Played Halloween Bingo for prizes and participation prizes were given to those in costume. Appetizers were served.

Trip Ideas and Events

Chairman Hayes suggested a trip to the Volo Museum.

Trustee Brady suggested a trip to the Fireside Theater and provided information on their 2026 season.

Roxane Tyssen stated there will be a guest speaker from Public Works at the Senior Center on December 8th. Possibly have the Pollyanna event the same day.

GOOD OF THE ORDER

Roxane Tyssen would like to order a name tag for a volunteer. She will get the correct spelling.

Andy Ashmus suggested scheduling another pizza party to recognize volunteers.

Chairman Bob Hayes stated the December meeting will be canceled. The January meeting is to be determined.

Commissioner Holiday Party is December 17th, 6:00 to 8:30 p.m. at the Tinley Park Convention Center.
