Senior Center Updates and Reports (Roxane Tyssen)

B. Membership

Senior Center Administrator Roxane Tyssen reported holding around 475.

Roxane Tyssen reported we have been having great turn outs for Bingo. Bunco has also been very popular.

February luncheon 2/3 fried chicken, 1/3 baked. Cheesy potatoes, garden salad and vegetable medley, rolls, butter, 120 paczki from Orland Bakery. Orland Bakery will deliver a large order. Valentine's Day theme. Coffee pots do not go out on the tables until food is served.

Elizabeth Wyllie suggested two dessert carts so we can serve faster.

Chair Bob Hayes suggested paper bowls for salt, pepper and sweeteners to save on dish washing.

OLD/ONGOING BUSINESS:

Trip Ideas and Events

Roxane Tyssen stated she is looking into a trip to the Jacob Henry Mansion for April. August we will have the architectural tour and then the casino trip. Date for the casino trip is to be determined. Possibly a trip to historic sites around Ottawa. Another historical tour idea would be in Crown Point. Requires a bit of walking and stair climbing.

Chair Bob Hayes thought both ideas were great. As long as we tell people ahead of time about the walking and stairs we should be fine.

GOOD OF THE ORDER

Tinley Park Irish Parade is March 8th.
